Focusing on Complex Litigation, Maritime Personal Injury and Regulatory Proceedings

Johnson & Crew, PLLC celebrates the selection of partner Paxton Crew to this year's Texas Super Lawyers list. Along with partner Chris Johnson, Crew has built a reputation for integrity and success. Johnson and Crew's practice areas encompass personal injury, administrative matters, real estate, probate, commercial litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and customs and trade issues.

"Our firm has recovered significant figures for our injured clients, and we've also saved our business clients millions," says Crew.

"We represent individuals and companies across the country and around the world, at both the negotiation table and in the courtroom. We listen. We fight. We get results."

Johnson & Crew is located in League City, Texas and serves its clients on a local, state, and nationwide basis.
